

The Cape
Trip; Trip

[VERSE 1:]

A new day breaks a flash of green
Across the horizon line.
The most amazing sight I've ever seen
It's so fine, must be divine.

The sun rises into the endless sky
It marks the start of day.
The gulls swoop upward with a cry
Is it play, or work day?

[CHORUS:]

I've been awed by Old Cape Cod
Learned about life and death
and love and hate
Sometimes the lesson's been flawed.
I've plowed sod on Old Cape Cod Stuck between land and sea
and
where I flee
Whenever life's too hard.

[VERSE 2:]

Noon-time heat upon my head
Drop of sweat on brow.
Ease your head, we'll soon be dead
Way deep down, under-ground.

Lessons of life that we all teach
And those that we must learn
Spent at the beach, the outer reach
Hot sun burn, cool earth turn.

[CHORUS]

[VERSE 3:]

Sunset shadows grow so long
Wind blows across the bay.
I sing this song, pull on my bong
And play along my way.

Evening comes, it's time to feed
Gather round our feast.
Nourishing seeds, meeting our needs
Eat the yeasts, then the beasts.

[CHORUS]

[VERSE 4:]

Night-time is here, I've made it through
Another Cape Cod day
Spent it with you, isn't that cool
We'll stay this way I say.

Sleeping deeply, a sea-side bed
My mind is left at ease.
Story's been said, dreams in my head
Wind through trees, bring us peace.

[CHORUS]
