[INTRO:]

Someone said that the love you take is equal to the love that you make
And I say you gotta open your heart
even if it seems dumber than smart.

[VERSE 1:]

When the sun rises,
and clouds blow away;
we'll get some surprises
it's a brand new day.

[CHORUS:]

Open your heart, open your mind
Ev'rything's good, whatever you find
You can do what you feel
just so long as it's real Remember be kind
And love can't be declined.

[VERSE 2:]

Noontime is burning,
it's as hot as it gets;
it's shade we'll be yearning
until the sun sets.

[CHORUS]

[VERSE 3:]

Evening is mellow,
angle's to an ease;
hang out with good fellows
let's all live in peace.

[CHORUS]

[VERSE 4:]

Nighttime is grooving,
for cheers we'll be pouring;
everybody is moving
nothing's ever boring.
